

I hope you will decide not to allow more consolidation of broadcast media ownership. We are already too limited in the sources of information and entertainment available to us, and the large media empires have too much power over the information which is necessary to the formation of intelligent public opinion.

Please vote not to change the current ownership rules, or at least to postpone the decision to allow more dialogue and efforts to reach a reasonable accommodation of competing interests.